CATERING FAQ

Do you provide set up and take down? How about people to help serve?

No. We do not provide set up and take down. We only offer delivery to your event and drop off.

Do you deliver?

Yes, we have this option if available. We use our own, in-house drivers and contract with professional 3rd party delivery services.

How early and/or late to offer services?

We offer services from 6:45am to 12:30pm. Earlier catering can be requested if needed, but it is not guaranteed, and additional fees are charged. We have catered as early as 5:30am before. Late catering delivery and fulfillment is not offered. If a late pickup is requested, we may allow a late pickup option as late as 3pm, but this is not common for us to do.

Do you offer drinks or any other food?

We can provide breakfast drinks by the gallon and fresh cut fruit in addition to kolaches. There is a minimum requirement of 150 people for fruit. Fresh cut fruit and drinks are not a guaranteed service and we need 48hrs-72hours notice. We offer hot coffee as well through our Salt Lake and West Jordan locations. We are very willing to work with all needs and wants. We have provided fresh parfaits, simple yogurt cups, cheese platters, and even veggie platters or chips. Of course, these requests are not normal for us, but in special circumstances we may be able to accommodate such requests.

Are there discounts?

We do not give quantity discounts on our food; however, we offer a wide variety of options to fit any budget. We also offer a "Hookup Package" that makes ordering for you and baking for us simple! Please ask us how we can help! We work with each customer individually, so no offering will be the same.

Do you offer any other kolache sizes?

Yes. We offer minis and our catering (mid) size. For larger orders, we can do custom size kolaches to fit budgets.

Is there a catering loyalty program?

As of now we do not offer any loyalty programs.

CATERING FAQ

Do you have gluten friendly, dairy free or vegan catering options?

Yes! We offer gluten-friendly kolache bowls. They must be ordered through West Jordan, Salt Lake, or Orem locations. Other Utah County locations may not be available.

***These are not 100% gluten free*** They come with our egg fillings and potatoes prepared with the same utensils and service areas as used to prepare our kolaches.

Vegan bowls are a vegan gravy with potatoes and veggies. Bowls are not guaranteed.

Do you offer utensils or paper goods?

By request only. Minimums and additional fees will apply.

What is your presentation like?

In order to keep costs as low as possible for y'all and us, we keep things very simple! We deliver our food in labeled cardboard cake boxes. It is up to the customer how they wish to display the food. We do not offer any other set up or equipment/tools.

Do kolaches re-heat well?

Absolutely. For reheating large amounts of minis or mid-sized that have been stored in the fridge, savory works best low and slow. A full sheet pan of 2-3 dozen mini savory takes about 1 hour at 200 degrees to reach the internal temperature of 165 degrees. Sweet reheat best with a higher temperature and less time. A full sheet pan of 2-3 dozen mini sweet take 5-10 minutes at 350 degrees in the oven to reach desired temperature and texture.

Do you cater on Sunday?

No, we are closed. But it is always worth asking if someone is willing to do it. Fees will apply.

Do you offer special flavors?

We generally like to stick to our breakfast menu, but we do offer some off-menu options that may be available for an order. Minimums and extra costs would apply. Please ask us for more info. We have done a lot of fun fillings, from BBQ to Asian inspired. We have even done themed kolaches like Lord of the Rings fillings or Harry Potter inspired sweets. Just ask us!!

What events are kolaches for?

Everything! We have done weddings, cooperate retreats, office meetings and companywide breakfasts. Kolaches fit every table and budget!
